

Edward's Flowers

Over 70 years of award-winning arrangements on the north side!

Edward's Flowers, founded by Edward Cohn, has been a neighborhood staple on the north side since 1947. Initially located at 818 Elm Street, it moved to its current location at 911 Elm Street in 1980. A long-time northside resident, Edward sought to support the neighborhood with his shop. His son, Mitch Cohn, continued his father's mission by entering the business in 1987 and buying the business in 1997.

With 9 full-time employees and 5 delivery trucks, Mitch and his staff design and deliver floral arrangements to recipients across the Mahoning Valley. They consistently win awards in the Floral and Fine Arts Competition held each year at the Canfield Fair. Edward's Flowers also earned recognition as a Top 500 FTD and a Top 2000 Teleflora Member. It serves as the highest volume flower shop in the Mahoning Valley. Frequent patrons include Mercy Health, local funeral homes, and the local synagogues and churches. Each year, Mitch donates flowers for the beautification of Youngstown State University and local organizations, as well as participates in Mad About the Arts since its inception. His most popular day for flower orders and deliveries is Mother's Day, and their biggest season is Christmas.
